

The New Art Gallery Walsall

Gallery Square, Walsall, West Midlands, United Kingdom

The New Art Gallery Walsall presents, collects and interprets historic, modern and contemporary art in innovative and challenging ways. The gallery is open Tuesday to Saturday 10am - 5pm and Sundays 12noon - 4pm (closed Mondays and Bank Holidays) and welcomes visitors from all over the globe. We aim to increase the understanding and enjoyment of arts and culture through our dynamic exhibition, education and event programme. The changing exhibition programme on Floors 3 and 4 focuses on the contemporary visual arts. Presenting both solo and group shows and through artists' projects, we aim to support and develop the work of living artists and to build and develop audiences for the visual arts. The Garman Ryan exhibition programme on Floor 2 explores the many themes of the collection and presents mainly historic temporary exhibitions, it also showcases contemporary works from the collection making interesting connections between old and new art. We aim to deliver a programme that reflects the diversity of contemporary art and the multi-cultural communities in which we live.
